

Join Panasonic at Red Sky Studios for an exclusive look at the new AU-EVA1 cinema camera, coming soon to Rule Boston Camera!

Panasonic
EVA1
Coming Soon!

At this evening event, you'll:

- Screen 3 shorts shot with the EVA1
- Learn from key Panasonic Cinema Specialists + Technicians
- Get hands-on access to the EVA1

The compact and lightweight EVA1 is a 5.7K handheld cinema camera that contains Dual Native ISOs of 800/2,500, records footage to low-cost SD cards, and captures 14-stops of dynamic range. It's tailor-made for a number of shooting applications, including narrative, documentary, music videos, live events, and more.
